PHYSICAL AND TECHNICAL LEVEL

For good skiers in good physical shape. Passes and summits with technical difficulties. You need to have some experience in ski touring. Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions about the required level.

Don't forget that you'll be walking with a 8 kilograms backpack, this increases the amount of effort needed to walk, be sure to be training with this extra weight.

You will progress on an unmarked high-altitude mountain route, you will then have to know the dangers linked to that activity (cracks, seracfalls, rockfalls, avalanches, very low temperatures).
